At the center of Granary Island, the PURO Gdansk is a bold, lively and colorful hotel that offers weary travelers a place to work, play and stay while in Poland. With 211 guest rooms, 9 suites and plenty of cozy corners filled with modern design (think Carl Hansen & Son, Gubi, Moroso, and more), this 4-star hotel deserves a place in your itinerary.

The PURO Gdansk lies in the heart of Gdansk City which is just now being transformed into a hot spot for tourism and business after being devastated from WWII. This spirit of regeneration and reinvention is reflected in the interiors designed by London-based interior design practice DeSallesFlint. Every corner of the hotel is packed with color, design and artwork (including an extraordinary mural
